Prepare your wands and pixie dust campers as we embark on a magical journey through Disney bingo, a creative writing Disney movies style, a spirited Disney spelling bee, and a whimsical word search. From challenging Disney quests to enchanting short stories, it's time to bring your favorite Disney moments to life in the most fun way imaginable!

A week filled with magic and creativity, campers will dive into exciting activities like making Moana ocean slime, crafting a Pixar "Cars" popsicle stick, and constructing a balloon tower to help Moana escape the Realm of Monsters. Plus, they'll have a hand in preparing delicious treats for our Toy Story's pizza party night. It's going to be a week of Disney-inspired fun!

Pack your imagination and unleash your creativity as we build an enchanted Disney castle, create vibrant "Up" finger paintings, craft Mike Wazowski from paper plates, design a classic Mickey Mouse plate, and assemble a fluffy cotton ball Olaf. It's a magical journey through the world of Disney art that promises to be as enchanting as it is fun!

Welcome to Week 9. Our theme for the week is Disney Dream!

Every Wednesday morning & Friday afternoon

This week is going to be one filled with pixie dust, laughter, and enchanting adventures. We are going to step into a world of magic. Don't miss out on your chance to create your own Disney Dream, it'll be a wish come true!

Parents don't forget to send your child with a reusable water bottle or tons of water, and lots of snacks! we want our kids to stay safe and hydrated! We would really appreciate it!
